An Invitation! To a Party!

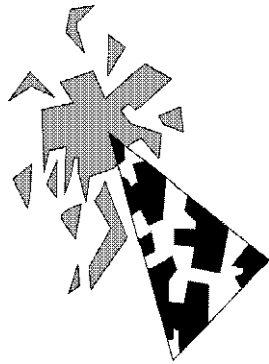

Who: The "temporary" income tax hike

What: Is ten years old!

Yes, it has been ten years since the House and Senate voted to pass a "temporary" increase in the income tax rate from 5% to 5.75%. The rate is now 5.95%. Since you are paying it, there is no need to bring a gift.

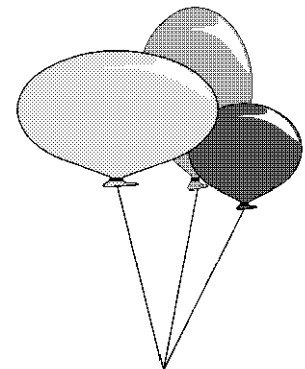

The 10th birthday of the "temporary" tax will be commemorated!

When: July 13, 1999, between 2:30 and 3 PM.

Where: The foot of the Grand Staircase, near its 1989 birthplace.

"Let us eat cake!" A birthday cake will be served to the media. Governor Cellucci is expected to drop by between 2:45 and 3:00. Legislators who voted this year to rollback the rate to 5% are also invited to attend. House members who voted to cut the rate only to 5.75% may have only a sliver of cake.

The CLT staff will lead in singing "Unhappy birthday."

A Tax is a Pay Cut . . . A Tax Cut is a Pay Raise
